Librarians in LDS Wards & Seminaries

Heber 1st Ward Zug g the 9th Center Creek Charleston Daniels Midway & Wallsburg Soldier Summit

Ref - 1. Call Wayne Probst 2. Call Larry Dubel 3 Call Ford race Lund and Vera Lesuer, riz; Ethel Coleman, Tempe, rs. Jack (Loia) Conneally, Ariz., Mrs. Travis (Marga-Alpine, Ariz. al services will begin at 1 38 Ward chapel. Friends may es are sure of the bulle turday in the Mosa (Ariz.) erg Morturay, 185 E. Center, hursday 6-8 p.m. and Friday at Calcharia & Runker Morty Cartesory, Artz.

ing from those units during the first nine years.

are potential energy sources, with the industry's power plant equipment ca-Portanova said one of Mother Earth Industries' selling points is the flexibility of the geothermal recommon to surrounding energy pro-jects in the area, on-site drilling has the extensive hot water reservoirs tapped into condensing steam. Both sources at Cove Fort. In addition to pable of adapting to either.

serves could possibly generate 330 megawatts over 30 years.

person would do," he said. "Whether it could last 30 years or 20 years, it's such figures were only calculated guesses, "We've done what a prudent But Smith was quick to add that nard to sav."

ommend the project. "As a cilizen, I think we have to look to the future." he As a Provo resident, Smith was asked by the council if he would recreplied.

"Some are built on a smaller scale, and some are just not built."

The workload now is enough to keep three inspectors generally busy, he said. "An indicator for me is, when someone is on vacation or with a day off being sick, everybody else has to many as pair a cozen inspectors

Hugo said.

projects and additions are common to single-family homes is strongest in the north and northeast sections of the city, he said, with several active subeastern areas of Provo. Remodeling Provo's increased growth of new, all parts of the city.

log to keep up."

Commercial building is strongest toward the north end of Provo as well as in and around State Street.

hers who support the project, of from 31.5 said.

riends asked the Otty Council week a may be delay the of where to such the library for to allow the Friends time to say could raise funds meresthe council to feel secure e project, but the common de-

Sunset the Brigham Young reignielt is eined, also enough brough donestons to buy and Academy belidings, v, foregoinger to the university than 100 years ago. 70 拉 at felt their proposal would city's seco for a cultural arts much-needed library and fultoadeany Square proposal for ary and other cptions -- a new expanding the extring build-pelvicing the library is gov-ar existing buildings in the mare studied by the Gry Com ary Board and olly officials.

owner, and toured the building, Astrope said. "Putting a library in this building is very feasible if they would just bother ibraries of the world are located in to come and take a look at what's available," he said. "Many of the great magnificeus structures like unis ose."

show as problem to fouring the il-beary in Academy Square. Fuckett and his group have been contacted by who specialize in recycling structures Thekett sold studies by developers copie willing to donate to the project cause the historical buildings used to elumni out there willing to donate porates a museum and cultural arts center along with the library. Plus, behe part of BYU, there are a lot of "We think we can get more donstions for the project because it incoralso," Tuckett spin.

"We do not feel this is a closed in-site," he said "We feel we can need the needs of the community."

heir decision was premature. He Some council members have said proposals, and Tuckett sold he feels they still have questions about the would like a moratorium placed on the decision.

in a survey done about 10 years ago, city residents indicated they wanted a

Sonare's

aresents Scadonia

r contacted Myrle E. Astrope. wes, only three members of ary sourd and one City Council ested individual would be willing to donate SI million if the library went If the library went into Academy into Academy Sqaure," Tuckett said.

brary "The city is now pushing only for the library." Tucket said. "We are flexible and feel we can meet the cultural aris center along with a li-less than the lease amount they could Sature, the Friends would develop the arts center and museum at no cost to "The lease price we would be giving he city is probably about the same or the city.

Arts Board, the Library Board and the City Council.

The entire project, including the li-

The Friends of the Library intend to contant working with the Cultural needs of the community trary, arts center and mursum, could run about $0 million, Astrope said. The the about $2.6 million dollars. "That $2.6 million does not include the money that may be donated specifically cost for developing the library would vate developers 11 years ago. However, ex. BYU officials say they are still interested in the square, and a dree-member committee has been Academy Square was sold to priget anywhere else," Astrope said, about $5 to $7 a square foot.

because he did not want to see it form down, "We want to see it preserved." Astrope, who represents the current nwaer, said the property was bought restoration.

appointed to work with the Friends on

However, several million has been Those donations have been wirtuelly

for the Hirston pledged by donors, Tuckett said.

the historic buildings from being torn down without a neavy Enancial penalty. Wowever, if the value of the land be torn down and the raw land sold A stipulation in the desci prevents alone exceeds the value of the land and buildings, they the buildings could without penalty, Astrope said,

> The city would have the opportunity to lease the building for 10 years. After leaf, the city would own the pullding and its only ocst would be uvely pursued the donations, millions more could be received. The Friends however, has not taken my donations.

unsolicited. Tuckett feels that if the Friends ac-buyers who want to develop stu-"I have talked to two very interestdent housing on the land," he sald. 200 the job done in a solling unneoder longer use, then dems for people Yes, we can get cell Classified. cossible every chings you no Dur Classified inventory of CHESTER SE the you as quickly as day. Take burry!

CLASSIFIED ADS LIAN COUNT WORK FOR YOUR Call Tell Free

1-800-662-9186

"The mayor fold us that one interbrany's price tag, he said.

Any money donated specifically for the library would be taken off the U-maintenance, Astrope said.